

Capital letters and full stops (5)
English worksheets from urbrainy.com

A capital letter at the start of a sentence, for names of people, places and days of the week. A full stop at the end of the sentence.

A proper noun is a special name for a person, place or thing e.g. Dean, Crewe, or South Street. Proper nouns have capital letters. Rewrite the sentences below with capital letters and full stops.

1. next wednesday we are going to blackpool tower

.....

2. the red arrows did a display over lincoln cathedral

.....

3. sarah took jon and jim to see the last ever show by the rolling stones

.....

4. the river amazon flows through brazil, in south america

.....

Write a proper noun (special naming word) for each of the following. (Do not forget the capital letters!)

5. a city

6. a road name

7. a girl's name

8. a county

9. a supermarket

10. an ocean

11. a football team

Names of places are proper nouns. Write down six countries in Europe.

Full stops and question marks

English worksheets from urbrainy.com

A full stop comes at the end of a statement.

A question mark comes at the end of a question.

Can you sort out the following words to make a statement and a question? Remember capital letters.

1. are dogs better cats than

Statement.

Question.

2. flag this english the is

Statement.

Question.

3. dangerous are to fireworks hold

Statement.

Question.

4. world over will robots the take

Statement.

Question.

5. very football is game a popular

Statement.

Question.

Exclamation marks and question marks

English worksheets from urbrainy.com

Exclamation marks are often used for commands, to show surprise or emotions and to make sentences more colourful.

Decide whether these sentences should end with a question mark or an exclamation mark.

1. Stop annoying me
2. Am I annoying you
3. You are really annoying

Write a sentence ending with an exclamation mark using each of these words:

stop

dare

help

homework

bed

raining

hurt

mad

